

Prayer points for this week

Sunday. 'To God be the glory, great things He hath done; So loved He the world that He gave us His Son, Who yielded His life an atonement for sin, And opened the life gate that all may go in.' Let us 'praise the Lord' as we worship today. Pray for God's undertaking of our morning service, esp. for Paula McKeown leading, & David Maxwell bringing to us God's Word. Also, in the evening, Richard McIlhatton, taking the service.

Monday. The Queen. As individually we pay our private respects to Her Majesty the Queen, let us also commit all the events of today to God, who gave the late Queen her life, & 'calling' (faithfully undertaken), & who now takes her home to Himself. To God be the glory.

Tuesday. Give thanks to the Lord for our freedom to follow Him in this land. Consider all the areas in your life, private & public, where you may take this freedom & privilege for granted. Acknowledge these blessings, with gratitude to God today.

Wednesday. In Scripture we are told to "Pray for each other," "Carry each other's burdens." This applies to anyone you know who, for example, is in trouble, or ill, worried, lonely, grieving, sad. Also for anyone who dislikes you, treats you badly, or persecutes you. Don't forget to pray for family & friends who, as yet, need to respond to God's call to follow Him. Let us be known as a people of prayer.

Thursday. Crisis – The finances of all our members are under great strain with the continuing increases in heating, electricity, food etc. These costs likewise affect our church. Seek God's guidance & wisdom for the leadership of McQ., who are tasked with managing the finances of the church, & the use of church property, in the most effective ways.

Friday. Christians are reminded (1 Timothy 2:2) to pray "for Kings & all those in authority, that we may live peaceful & quiet lives in all godliness & holiness". Pray for King Charles, & all the leaders of this land.

Saturday. Commit to the Lord - Norman Maynes, leading us into God's presence, & the message from Graham Connor. Let us come to worship the Lord with joy, in spirit & in truth. He is our God! (Psalm 95:7)
